

caroline humphrey

caroline.humphrey.2@bc.edu / 914-355-8079

career objective

conceptualize, create & implement

To work with a highly collaborative team where I can combine my passion for design and technology with my skills in computer programming. To help a company build a business of significant value by creating new systems, applications and products that will produce sustainable revenue growth for the future and have a positive impact on society.

technical & design experience

department of computer science / teaching assistant — 2016 | Chestnut Hill, MA

Selected as a freshman for T.A. position for Computer Science I Honors Class (OCAML). Responsible for discussion sections and grading for 18 undergraduate students. Consult with students during office hours 3 hrs per week.

patrick mele designs — 2015 | New York, NY

Assisted in all aspects of growing interior design business for one of NY's up and coming designers. Consulted with Patrick on designs; Managed and maintained all social media including instagram, twitter and website. Coordinated all scheduling, buying and deliveries with vendors and clients; Direct client interface yearbook— 2015 | Pelham, NY

Editor-in-Chief of Pelham Memorial High Schools award winning yearbook entitled "This is Our Story". Awarded the Columbia Scholastic Press Association's Silver Crown for design and writing. Responsible for entire process from conceptualization to implementation. Developed theme, interviewed students, designed each layout, edited each story and caption, sold advertising. Managed yearbook staff of 25 students.

oscar de la renta — 2014 | New York, NY

Intern for Oscar's PR Girl, Erika Bearman in the Global Communications Department. Coordinated scheduling between fashion houses and clients. Communicated with celebrities and magazine editors to facilitate their selection of accessories and clothing. Involved in the selection of photographs for social media platform OscarPRGirl. Delivered hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of couture gowns to clients throughout NYC.

general business experience

walter's — 2016 | Larchmont, NY

Served loyal customers at Walter's Hot Dogs, a Westchester institution and a historical landmark serving their world famous hot dogs since 1919. Worked various stations in the high pressure environment serving over 1000 customers per day. Responsible for training new employees.

huguenot memorial church — 2015 | Pelham, NY

Ruling Elder (governing body) of Huguenot Memorial Church. Voted on board issues regarding finances, mission, events, membership and the future of church. Set up volunteering and fundraising events to raise money for the installation of a new organ.

huguenot hoops youth basketball — 2013-2015 | Pelham, NY

Commissioner of local youth basketball program serving over 300 kids. Managed and scheduled 20 youth teams and coaches to teach fundamental basketball skills to children ages 7-16. Coordinated all advertising, sign-ups, coaches, teams, equipment, location, practice times and games.

contact

caroline.humphrey.2@bc.edu

+1 (914)355-8079

600 Francis Street

Pelham, NY 10803

education

boston college — 2019

B.A. in Computer Science; Morrissey College of Arts and Sciences, Chestnut Hill, MA
Minor: Economics

GPA: 3.2

skills

technical

OCaml, UNIX operating systems, Java, C, Python, Indesign, Excel, Word, Powerpoint activities

4boston volunteer — 2015, 2016

Tutor at St. Columbkille Partnership School in Brighton, MA. Leads the robotics and homework clubs.

women in computer science — 2016

awards

Columbia Scholastic Press Association's Silver Crown for design and writing - "This is Our Story", 2015 Pelham Memorial High School Yearbook, Editor-in-Chief interests

Pipe Organ Player, Graphic Design, Computer Programming, Volunteering, Running references

Available upon request